Tom -

In the interests of judicial economy, can you please refile an amended cost statement, removing the extra $2.00 a page for expediting the transcripts of Arquilla and Kopitke. If you agree to do that, then there will be no objections to the amended bill of costs. Please let us know.

Very Truly Yours,

-J.

Jason, we will do so. But just so you know, we can't amend the invoices. They are what they are. So what we will do is take $2.00 times the number of pages total in both of those transcripts and reduce the cost accordingly, with a brief note to the clerk about why the costs have been amended. Tom

Jason, based on our math, the reduction for the Arquilla transcript is $640. The reduction for the Kopitke transcript is $400, for a total of $1040.

Rather than clog up the clerk's docket, Mercy will agree that if the court awards costs that include Arquilla's and Kopitke's transcripts as is that include the expedited $2.00 per page premium, that you can pay $1040 less in costs.

Is that satisfactory? Thank you. Tom
